

Reflection

The main theme in this week's Gospel reading centres around Jesus' temptation in the wilderness, as recounted in the Gospel of Mark (Mark 1:12-15), or in other years, it may be from the Gospels of Matthew or Luke. However, for the purpose of this reflection, let's focus on Mark's account.

Mark's narrative of Jesus' temptation in the wilderness sets the stage for Jesus' public ministry, immediately following his baptism by John the Baptist. The wilderness, often symbolising a place of trial and testing, becomes the backdrop for Jesus' encounter with temptation.

The theme of temptation is universal and timeless. It speaks to the human experience of grappling with desires, struggles, and choices. In Jesus' temptation, we see not only a demonstration of his divinity but also an example for us to follow in resisting temptation and remaining faithful to God's will.

One key aspect of Jesus' response to temptation is his reliance on Scripture and his trust in God's provision. When tempted by the devil to satisfy his hunger by turning stones into bread, Jesus replies, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" This highlights the importance of spiritual nourishment and the primacy of God's word in sustaining us through life's challenges.

Furthermore, Jesus' rejection of the devil's offers of power and glory underscores the importance of humility and fidelity to God's plan. He refuses to take shortcuts or compromise his mission, choosing instead the path of obedience and self-sacrifice.

As we enter the season of Lent, Jesus' temptation serves as a reminder of the spiritual battles we face and the need for vigilance and discernment. It invites us to reflect on our own temptations and weaknesses, to turn to God for strength and guidance, and to renew our commitment to following Christ faithfully.

A Ministry of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth

Our Mission: To grow as a community in the likeness of Christ.

A chance to serve through music and singing

OLQP is blessed with a good number of people who serve us all through music at Mass.

If you have music and/or singing ability, would you be able to offer your generosity once a month to your parish community? There is an opportunity on the 4th Saturday night of the month at 5pm, following another generous musician's move to the coast.

OR you are very welcome and encouraged if there is another Mass time at which you'd like to contribute your abilities. Depending on your particular talents we can link you with others and/or look to the forming of new groups.

Kindly speak to Fr Paul, Fr Jack Fr Jobi - or let the parish office know (parishoffice@olqp.org.au) you'd like one of them to be in touch with you. They will happily support you to meet key people of the music ministry and to find a way to share in this great gift of service for God's glory in the Mass!

Details - OLQP Friday nights of Lent

We will be alternating two specially prepared versions of the Stations of the Cross. Each Friday needs three people to present from a script. They can be people of any age – from three different families each time (or singles or from different couples), who have experience of public reading/speaking. Anyone keen is very welcome to contact parishioner Lucita who will kindly coordinate – lqrtutoring@gmail.com – Those presenting each Friday will meet with their co-presenters at 6.30pm and become familiar with the script.

- All parishioners and any people you invite are welcome to all or part of any of these evenings which start at 7pm. So, come only to Stations - or only later - or to all - as you are able. Expected finish time each week is around 8.15pm.
- Structure each time: Stations at 7pm / Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament around 7.30pm / 10 minutes silence / Rosary / 10 mins silence / Benediction and reservation of the Blessed Sacrament
