WINTER EMBRACE Weekend 2

Dear friends

Local Sleepout

By the time you see this, members of our Greystanes Catholic Community from both our Primary School and College, will have had a winter sleepout as an expression of empathy for the homeless and/or those sleeping rough. The most recent census estimated that on any given night, more than 122,000 people in Australia are experiencing homelessness. This includes people sleeping in cars, seeking crisis accommodation, bunking in with others in overcrowded temporary places or sleeping in the bush, street or park. Something near 10,000 of those are under 12 years of age. Around 30,000 are teenagers up to early 20s. 80,000 of them are mid 20s and above, including elderly and frail.

What's obvious and what's not

The practical and safety issues around the phenomenon of homelessness in Australia are probably fairly obvious. But then there are the domino effects too; the loneliness; the impact on esteem, relationships, aspiration and purpose; the ability to go to or return from any kind of work; the mental health impacts; and the potential chain of effects on nutrition and general health. The St Vincent de Paul Society – often affectionately called Vinnies - is one of the extremely significant outreach works in Australia (and in about 150 countries) that continues to make a difference for many who are homeless. We see the shopfronts, trucks and Vinnies vans around. But the grassroots foundation of the St V de P Society is local 'conferences' of Catholic faithful and friends (including what is a very small conference here at OLQP), who meet to support each other in faith, to share the stories of their encounters with people on the margins, and who then go out again to offer accompaniment and care.

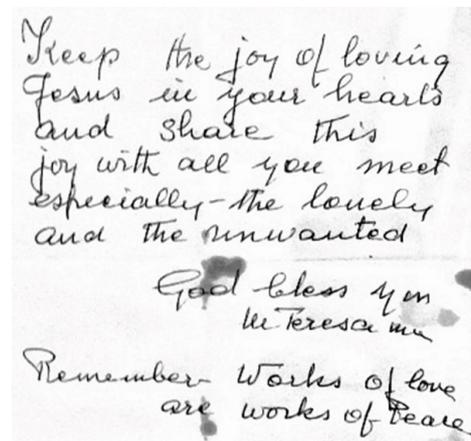

A 20 year old founder

This weekend at our Masses, we'll hear a small piece of the story of Frederic Ozanam, the 20 year old founder of the St Vincent de Paul Society. Frederic was challenged in his young university life as to how his Catholic faith was making any real difference. And so, along with a group of companions, he allowed the challenge to awaken his capacity to be the presence of Christ to people struggling in Paris in his day. This week, not only us at Mass, but everyone else across our parish property too - will learn something age-appropriate about Frederic and the St V de P Society. Let's pray that this further awareness of a special part of our Catholic story of care will help to keep stretching all of our imaginations as to how we can be agents of unity and hope in the world around us.

Thanksgiving for our Pre/Primary Schools and College

On behalf of the parish I give thanks for the faith-filled efforts of our on-site schools who are actively partnering with us to grow a familiarity with what is becoming known as our united Winter Embrace (and Christmas Embrace later in the year). Our seasons of Embrace are a focussed time for us to be the wider Church all together; to embrace the stories of others and to embrace our God-given capacity to be the heart of Christ making a difference.

From Mother Teresa

The small photo of hand-writing shown here in the bulletin isn't too clear but see if you can make it out (clue: M Teresa). Some of you have seen the worn and faded original that I received from Mother Teresa in Calcutta in 1986, from which this is photographed and printed. I thought its message was a good way to mark our Winter Embrace initiative – that's supporting - i. the St V de P – ii. children in Sri Lanka and - iii. Project Elizabeth for those who are isolated in pregnancy, loss or early child raising. Through our awareness and care, may many people be embraced by God's grace and love.

With friendship in God's mission— Fr Paul
